Fifth circular

Dear Colleagues,

We are sending you the final program with this letter as well as some additional information.

How to get to Münster:

If you arrive by plane at Münster-Osnabrück Airport (FMO), you can either take the S 50 bus (to Münster), which runs every hour from Monday to Saturday (07:04 - 18:04) and every two hours on Sundays (09:04, 11:04...19:04), or the R 51 bus (to Münster), which runs every hour from Monday to Saturday (08:33 - 18:33) and every two hours on Sundays (09:29, 11:29...17:29). You can buy a ticket on the bus. A taxi to the city centre costs 70-90 EUR, depending on traffic.

If you arrive in Düsseldorf (DUS), take the Skytrain to the railway station. The regional train RE 2 is a direct connection to Münster (hourly, 08:13, 09:13...), for other connections you have to change in Duisburg or Hamm. You can check current connections at <https://int.bahn.de/en>. The SchönerTagTicket NRW Single (€34.80) is restricted to regional trains (RE and RB), if you choose a connection with IC or ICE (via Duisburg) the costs are 39 EUR. Both tickets allows you to use the bus once you arrive at Münster Hauptbahnhof. At the registration you will get a bus ticket for free, valid for the time of the conference.

Conference venue and registration:

The conference venue is in the centre of Münster, the Fürstenberghaus, Domplatz 20-22, please use the main entrance (visible on the photo). All our rooms are on the right hand side of the building. The registration is at the first floor.

Please send us your presentations, recorded talks and posters as soon as possible. Presentations with many images can result in large amounts of data that cannot be sent by email. Please use our university's file server using this link (please do NOT use Dropbox, Google Drive or Google Presentations):

<https://uni-muenster.sciebo.de/s/GGylqKXshd5R692>

Pre-recorded presentations need to be uploaded by 6 September.

We need your posters by 23 August to guarantee printing from our side. Please upload them to <https://uni-muenster.sciebo.de/s/B7ZNkCI9cAGGzKT>.

Presentations to be given in person must be uploaded to the appropriate laptop no later than the break before your presentation.

If you have not already booked a hotel, we strongly recommend that you do so. Münster is a busy city and is already quite full at this time.
